

CONQUEST OF BREAD™

Adapted for the modern lumpenproletariat

Bread Book by:

P Kropotkin

I ♥ bread book, but it's too WORDY.

what was conceptualized then can work now -
adaptations have to be accessible to our times

Solely <sup>by</sup> circumstance, LUMPENS
are the most revolutionary minded.

Our RICHES

Dont idolize the rich or riches.
OUR ASSUMED
WEALTH IS A LIE.
We own nothing.
ALL just scramble
for crumbs.

WELL BEING
FOR ALL

We are ALL entitled
to live minus
shame.

All deserve to have their needs met.

COMMUNISM

Ancom is just naming what our ancestors
built with us
in mind.

Share all,
including
LOVE.

expropriation

We won't be able to thrive
unless we take the means
of our labor.

Rack until nothing
is left.

FOOD

the earth contains
the seeds.
enough for all us
to eat.
$ stops that.

Be freegan.
Grow ur own.

dwellings

landlords are not ETHICAL.

who owns the earth?

clothing

the factories
that we sell
our labor to should be open for us
to make all the goods we need.

reuse. upcycle.
Rack.

Ways

Means

No brand loves you.

luxury is a lie we attach to in order to avoid the facts of capitalism.

agreeable
work

trade for access (and to help neighbors),
not for profit.

the need for
LUXURY

Practice Consent.

We can be free &
make strides to happiness.

people can exist
without governing.

Personal responsibility.

objections

eliminate money,
bosses & time!
make work fun!

no job title should
strip our humanity.

consider that workers
are people.

Free
Agreement

We can get further without restriction.

Personal responsibility

the collectivist
wages system

work to live,
work to help.
$ is not needed.
end money.

consumption
&
production

making what we need
locally is more practical than building items to transport.

 & share around.

the DIVISION OF LABOUR *

(how bout old & eurocentric??)

multimarginalized
people produce the most and have access to the least.

destroy the system
dont fuel it.

decentralization
of industry

SEIZE the MEANS (of production)

ends the power dynamics that exploit
workers.

burn the factory.

agriculture

DIY, don't die.

We start by making
our own food. then
more skills for self.
sufficiency. then
combine those resources and build community
communally.

KNOW YOUR WORTH

it cannot be measured

Buy less.

trade more.

take care of each other

Consistently
work
towards Liberation!

not just yours either!
the key to liberation
is purposely ignored by systems in place but
on individual levels we can center our people generally swept aside.

your comrades.

even ones without
all the vocab words.
